Midtown Café at the Beacon Announces Launch of Redesigned Website

Manchester, NH – Midtown Cafe at the Beacon is excited to announce the launch of its newly redesigned website. The new and improved website offers quick, easy and user-friendly access to the cafe's menu, location, news and events as well as contact information.

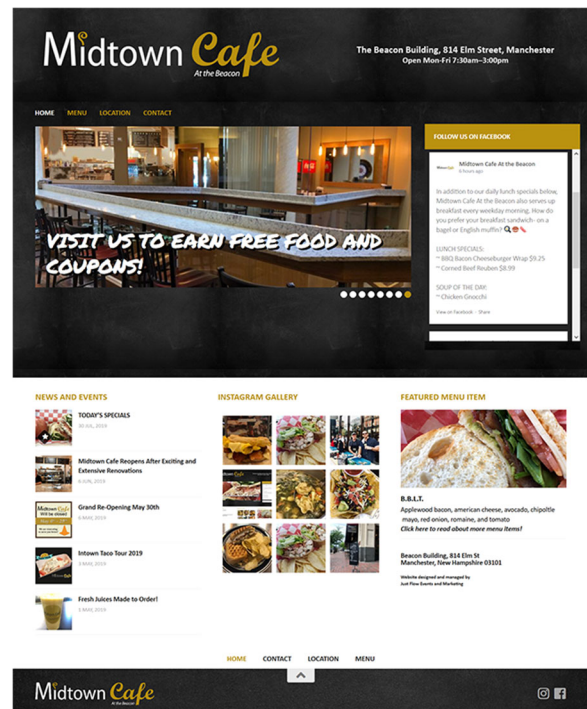

The new website offers improved functionality and features a regular rotation of featured menu items as well as live social media feeds from Midtown Cafe at the Beacon's Facebook and Instagram pages.

Midtown Cafe at the Beacon is owned by Carol Lawrence-Erickson, Owner and President of the Red Arrow Diner and is located in the atrium of Manchester, New Hampshire's historic Beacon Building, 814 Elm Street. The cafe serves various breakfast items, such as specialty coffee drinks, breakfast sandwiches and smoothies, as well as delicious lunch selections including fresh wraps, paninis, soups and salads.

"I am excited for the launch of our brand-new website," said Carol Lawrence-Erickson, Owner of Midtown Cafe at the Beacon. "This revamp offers site visitors a clean and simple browsing experience. With a click of a button, visitors will now be able to seamlessly explore our menu and learn about cafe specials and promotions."

The new website is designed and managed by Just Flow Events & Marketing (justflownh.com) of Manchester, New Hampshire.

Midtown Cafe at the Beacon recently underwent renovations and reopened to reveal an updated and improved space. To view Midtown Cafe at the Beacon's brand-new website, visit midtowncafeh.com.
